The East Fork Justice Court has information on its website concerning the availability of mediation and government-sponsored rental assistance for the Tenant Affidavit, among other matters. A tenant may access this information at <https://eastforkjusticecourt.com/>.

Rental assistance is available through Douglas County Social Services. They can be reached at (775) 782-9825 or online at https://communityservices.douglascountynv.gov/social_services. If you have a pending application for rental assistance, or if your landlord has refused to participate in the rental assistance process or has refused to accept rental assistance on your behalf, you have the right to assert those facts as a defense to this eviction at any point in the proceedings. Should you assert this defense to the court, the court will determine if your case is designated as one that may be paused until a determination on your rental assistance application is made or until a hearing is held for you to prove the validity of your claim of the landlord's refusal.

Legal Assistance may be available through (1) Legal Aid Center of Southern Nevada/Civil Law Self Help Center at (1) <http://www.civillawselfhelpcenter.org/self-help/evictions-housing>; (2) Volunteer Attorneys of Rural Nevada at <http://www.varn.org/newsite/>; or (3) Nevada Legal Services at <https://nlslaw.net/>.

Your landlord IS NOT IS requesting an exemption from any pause in this eviction case due to a realistic threat of foreclosure of the rental property if unable to evict you.

Additionally, if the court determines that your case is designated as one mandating mediation, you may receive an order setting a hearing and notification of mediation after you file an affidavit contesting the eviction notice. The eviction case will be paused for not more than 30 days to facilitate mediation.

Your failure to pay rent or vacate the premises before the close of business on the seventh (7th) judicial day¹ following the Date of Service of this notice may result in your landlord applying to the Justice Court for an eviction order. If the court determines that you are guilty of an unlawful detainer, the court may issue a summary order for your removal or an order providing for your non-admittance, directing the sheriff or constable to post the order in a conspicuous place on the premises not later than 24 hours after the order is received by the sheriff or constable. The sheriff or constable shall then remove you not earlier than 24 hours but not later than 36 hours after the posting of the order. Pursuant to NRS 118A.390, you may seek relief if a landlord unlawfully removes you from the premises, or excludes you by blocking or attempting to block your entry upon the premises, or willfully interrupts or causes or permits the interruption of an essential service required by the rental agreement or chapter 118A of the Nevada Revised Statutes.

YOU ARE HEREBY ADVISED OF YOUR RIGHT TO CONTEST THIS NOTICE by filing an Affidavit no later than by the close of business² on the seventh (7th) judicial day following the Date of Service of this notice, with the East Fork Justice Court, stating that you have tendered payment or are not in default of rent. You can access and fill out the forms at <https://eastforkjusticecourt.com/>. If you do not have internet access, you can complete your forms in-person at the East Fork Justice Court. All forms must be filed with the East Fork Justice Court Clerk's office, located at 1038 Buckeye Road, Minden, NV 89423. At the time of filing, a $76.00 file fee will be assessed to the tenant. If needed, a request for the waiver of filing fees may be made by filing a Financial Affidavit.

² East Fork Justice Court closes at 5:00 p.m. on Mondays through Fridays.
